FRIDAY 8TH DECEMBER 2017

PEDIGREE SALES – BLUE TEXEL SHEEP

A top price of 1100gns was achieved at the annual Blue Texel In Lamb Show and Sale held at Carlisle on Friday.

This was for the Overall Champion, a Dutch imported gimmer from Stasa Moyses Aberdeenshire based Saltire Blue flock. Scanned in lamb to 3,330gns Hackney Your Joking this gimmer was purchased by Laura Melland of New House Farm, Leek.

The next best price in this sale was the substitute entry CJ's Angie from C Cormack and G McDowell. This gimmer sired by Cleenagh Xpresso was out of a Blue Stone bred ewe and had been scanned in lamb to another Hackney ram, Young Pretender. She had won 2nd prize in the pre-show sale and went on to be purchased by JD Holden, Hud Hay Farm, Rossendale.

The 1st prize winning aged ewe and Reserve Overall Champion GYM/15/0023 went for the next best price of 750gns when purchased by William Vance of Co Tyrone. Consigned again by C Cormack & G McDowell, this ewe had been bred by Mathew Jones of the Glen-Y-Mor flock. She was sired by Rattrays Vincent and has been scanned in lamb to Pistyll Arfron.

Stasa Moyses's Saltire Blue Aston Martin sold for 700gns.
